Dear Principal Kelly Ricks, Teachers and Faculty of Winborn Elementary School:

I am writing to offer you my heartfelt congratulations on your recent recognition by the Texas Education Agency (TEA) as an exemplary school and to thank you for your continued dedication to the students of Texas' Tenth Congressional District.

This recognition is a tribute to the hard work and dedication that you have given to this community and its children and I join TEA in commending you. I am sincerely grateful that the lessons you have learned and experiences you have taken part in will no doubt have an incredible impact on your future and on the future of the children you teach on a daily basis. I applaud your time, diligence and commitment that you continuously give to education.

As a member of the United States House of Representatives, I congratulate you on this honor and I am proud to continue to serve as your Congressman.

Sincerely,

Michael T. McCaul
Member of Congress
