

Learn About the Traits of Gifted Children

Come learn more about traits of gifted children and strategies suited to those traits. Katy Parents of Gifted and Talented Students welcomes James T. Webb, Ph.D. author of the new book, A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children Saturday, November 17, 2007, 9:30 AM Taylor High School Cafeteria 20700 Kingsland Boulevard in Katy Based on the new book, A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children, this workshop describes the social/emotional needs, interpersonal, and emotional patterns of gifted children, along with frequent problems that occur. Characteristics of gifted children are influenced by their asynchronous development, intensity and over excitabilities, and their thinking styles. This session will provide an understanding of issues such as underachievement, power struggles, and perfectionism. For more information about this free opportunity, to learn more about gifted children and Katy Parents of Gifted and Talented Students, please visit: www.kpgt.org.